HYMN

“Let Us Plead for Faith Alone”

Charles Wesley

Let us plead for faith alone, faith which by our works is shown;
God it is who justifies, only faith the grace applies.

Active faith that lives within, conquers hell and death and sin, hallows whom it first made whole, forms the Savior in the soul.

Only let us persevere, till we see our Lord appear;
never from the Rock remove, saved by faith which works by love.

“Little Things with Great Love”

The Porter’s Gate

In the garden of our Savior no flower grows unseen. His kindness rains like water on every humble seed. No simple act of mercy escapes His watchful eye. For there is One who loves me His hand is over mine.

In the kingdom of the heavens no suffering is unknown. Each tear that falls is holy, each breaking heart a throne. There is a song of beauty in every weeping eye. For there is One who loves me His heart, it breaks with mine.

O the deeds forgotten. O the works unseen. Every drink of water flowing graciously. Every tender mercy You’re making glorious, this You have asked of us: Do little things with great love, Little things with great love.

At the table of our Savior, no mouth will go unfed and His children in the shadows stream in and raise their heads. O give us ears to hear them, and give us eyes that see for there is One who loves them. I am His hands and feet.
